FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Clinton-Macomb Public offers online events

Join the Clinton-Macomb Public Library for an extraordinary online program. On Mon., Nov. 9 at 6 p.m. join Larry Martin's World War II. Martin has been dedicated to interviewing soldiers and civilians who suffered and persevered during World War II to ensure that their stories are not forgotten. This presentation is an interview with Alexander Jefferson, who served with the Tuskegee Airmen as a fighter pilot. Learn about Lt. Jefferson's life from being shot down over Southern France to his incarceration where he endured a horribly cold forced march ahead of the Russian Army. This program is intended for adults. Registration is required. Register online or call (586) 226-5040.

On Wed., Nov. 11 at 7 p.m. join Steven Mrozek, historian and former curator for the Dossin Great Lakes Museum, as he describes the final voyage and sinking of the SS Edmund Fitzgerald 45 years ago. Registration is required. Register online or call (586) 226-5083.

Rolling into the holiday season it's a great opportunity to learn more cooking skills. On Thurs., Nov. 12 at 6:30 p.m. join librarians from Clinton-Macomb Public Library and Mount Clemens Public Library virtually via Zoom to learn how to use popular countertop cooking tools such as the Instant Pot, air fryer and more. Registration is required. Register online or call (586) 226-5050.
